- + Five modern business parks
- + A desirable place for employees to live and work
- + 6,969 companies – including 126 industrial enterprises, 809 skilled trade businesses, 1,503 trading companies, and 4,531 service providers (as of March 2026)
- + 34,058 formally employed individuals – including qualified professionals, specialists and experienced managers

Neu-Isenburg is the business location that offers more for everyone – the perfect address for companies, outstanding quality of life, and promising opportunities for developers and investors.

Located in the heart of the economically powerful Rhine-Main business region, Neu-Isenburg offers maximum mobility and an innovative infrastructure. Its unique industry mix and a broad range of high-profile companies create a dynamic business environment full of synergies. And behind it all: strong support from an Economic Development Office that's personally committed to your success and the future.

HELLO FUTURE

Together in business – that's the spirit of Neu-Isenburg. From global corporations to craftspeople, retailers, SMEs and start-ups – everyone contributes to a vibrant network of shared success. It's a diverse and dynamic business community we proudly help shape.

- + Vocational training network
- + Hosting of networking events
- + Digital infrastructure development and Smart City strategy
- + Integrated climate action plan
- + Sustainable mobility concept
- + City centre management – providing advice, networking opportunities and support for local players in retail, hospitality and the business association
- + "Business Park of the Future" – in collaboration with Frankfurt University of Applied Sciences

Our Economic Development Team

In the city of possibilities, a stone's throw away from the Frankfurt metropolitan region, we are the direct point of contact for business with close links to the administration and authorities. Finding bespoke solutions is our speciality – for companies interested in setting up business here, and for investors and local businesses.

HUB Isenburg

Neu-Isenburg (NI) – where everything is close, and the world is within reach. From here, right in the heart of Europe, you can connect globally – with Frankfurt International Airport just around the corner. Whether you're heading into the city, the countryside, the region or the motorway network – it's all just minutes away.

LIVE
ISENBURG

The future is mobile

Neu-Isenburg already offers excellent public transport connections – and they're set to improve even further. Starting in 2030, the planned Regionaltangente West (RTW) will provide record-speed links from Neu-Isenburg to Frankfurt Airport, the wider Rhine–Main region, and all the way to Bad Homburg. A clear advantage – especially for your commuting employees.

Journey times (direct links)

NI station – airport	approx. 12 minutes
NI centre – airport	approx. 20 minutes
NI-Birkengewann – airport	approx. 25 minutes
NI centre – Bad Homburg	approx. 60 minutes
